

Perfect Week in Panama:
Sailing in the San Blas Islands

Day 1:

Fly to Tocumen International Airport in Panama City. A private driver will be waiting to pick you up, just look for the sign with your name on it. Once you pass through customs, they will be to your right-hand side. Relax after your flight in your rooms with queen sized bed, separate living room area, and perhaps venture down to the hotel restaurant and enjoy a complimentary welcome drink. Spend your evening on the rooftop terrace or begin exploring Panama City.

Day 2:

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel and set off on a free day to enjoy everything the city has to offer! You'll have seen a golf cart zipping around, catch a ride in it and the hotel staff will be sure to tour you around. Suggestions: Visit the famed Panama Canal and tour the museum to learn about its important place in history. There are also tours available to see a bit of rainforest within the city if you're interested!

Day 3:

Again, enjoy a delicious breakfast at the hotel before catching a ride to the domestic airport with the same driver who picked you up before. Enjoy a quick, 35 minute flight to Corazon de Jesus. The captain of your sailboat will meet you at the airstrip to take you to the boat, only a three minute walk away. Board the sailboat and get ready to explore the gorgeous islands of the San Blas. Meet the captain and be welcomed aboard! Begin activities and exploring straight away while using the sailboat as your travelling base.

Day 4-6:

Enjoy your sailing cruise aboard a privately owned sailing yacht with your captain as your guide. Anchor in front of pristine desert islands but also by colourful coral reefs walls. You'll be away from any massive tourism enjoying some of Panama's most amazing snorkelling, with conditions perfect for all skill levels, and great kayaking to see the wildlife, bird watching, and to explore freely. Meet and engage with the local indigenous Kuna Yala people and see firsthand how their culture and traditions play a large role in their lives, a donation is already included in the price. Learn to sail a bit, and try your hand at fishing as well. Your meals will have a fresh catch of the day. Play beach volleyball or relax under the night time stars. Meet other sailors along the way and be amazed by this unique form of travel.

Day 7:

Your early morning flight back to Panama City will take you over the archipelago and virgin primary forests. Be met at the airport and taken back to the same, beautiful hotel from the beginning of your trip. Explore Panama City.

Day 8:

After breakfast at your hotel, take whatever time you have left to tour, explore, or see more of Panama City. Transfer to the international airport for your flight home, taking with you incredible, unforgettable memories.
